A little vanity is a good thing. Every woman should try, at all times, to look her very best. But it certainly must be discouraging to have your mirror tell you that your hair is gray when you are only thirty or fifty! Gray hair adds twenty years to the age. Why not look as young as you are, or even younger?

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Always restores color to gray hair, always. Brings back all the deep, rich, beautiful color of early youth. Perhaps the color of your hair suits, but you are losing the hair itself. You are threatened with thin hair, rough hair, scraggly hair. Your hair seems weak, not well nourished. Then give it Ayer's Hair Vigor, a true hair-food. It stops falling hair, makes the hair grow, and keeps it soft and silky.

DOWIE AT HOME

THE ZIONITE RETURNS TO ZION CITY AND IS GIVEN A ROYAL RECEPTION—CREDITORS IN THE BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST HIM ARE ACTIVE ON HEARING OF HIS RETURN—THE RECEPTION HOST.

CHICAGO, June 30.—After a trip which encircled the earth John Alexander Dowie arrived in Chicago today. He had sent word ahead that he would not soil his feet with the dust of Chicago. He remained in his private car while it was switched to the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad and attached to a train scheduled to leave for the Dowie settlement, Zion City, Ill.

It was said to be the original plan of Dowie and his party to use cabs in transferring between railway stations in Chicago. Rumors of possible action in connection with the court proceedings still pending may have changed the programme, but no one could be found to confirm this report.

Dowie has not yet been discharged from the Federal Court, being still known on the records as an "alleged bankrupt." Just before Dowie left Chicago for Australia Attorney Frank H. Scott, representing Marshall Field & Co., went into the bankruptcy court and petitioned Judge Kohlsaat to order Dowie to appear for examination. Judge Kohlsaat said at that time he would not be justified in interfering with Dowie's trip and that the examination could go over until after his return. Attorney Scott today declined to say whether he would now insist upon the examination of Dowie.

Attorney Samuel Ettelson, who represents the petitioning creditors in the case, said today that unless Dowie failed to live up to agreements with the creditors it was not probable there would be any clash in the case. Attorney Ettelson said:

"Dowie has promised to pay his debts dollar for dollar. He has made two or ten per cent payments. There is always a chance for reverses, but unless some dissatisfied creditor gets busy, I think he will pull through all right."

Residents of Zion City were busy all night making the finishing touches in the preparations for the arrival of Dowie. The streets, which were decorated with flags and bunting, had been rolled and sprinkled and all the stores were closed. Aside from a triumphal arch, the tabernacle was the chief object of decoration. Here Zion flags, blue and gold, with a cross in the center, flourished in the breeze in large numbers. Higher up was the union jack of England, and surmounting all was a huge American flag.

The "Arch of Triumph," situated near Elijah avenue, was made of imitation blocks of stone. Each block bore the name of a city that Dowie had visited in his travels. Black letters denoted the cities where Dowie had been received, while the names of the cities that had spurned him showed in glowing red. The red-lettered cities were San Francisco, Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide and London.

At the sound of a whistle the entire population spent two minutes in silent devotion and were then given six minutes in which to assemble for a procession that was to greet Dowie.

Ten companies of Zion City Guards, seventy men each, formed in line while the so-called "restoration host," 3500 strong, lined up at the tabernacle. At the arch the guards met the Dowieite senior and junior choirs, robed in surplices. The march to the depot was taken up, the other residents falling in behind.

Upon the arrival of the train at Zion City, Dowie's carriage, a victoria trimmed with carnations, ferns and smilax, conveyed the "doctor" and his "overseer" at the head of the procession to the arch, the Zion City Brass Band furnishing the music. At the arch ten little girls stepped forward, robed in white, with blue badges across their breasts, bearing in gold letters the names of ten of the principal countries which Dowie had visited. The children carried large bunches of roses, which they threw over Dowie and his party, and then unlocked the gates of the arch, handing over to Dowie the key, which on his departure he had given to the chief overseer. Addresses were then made by Dowie, his wife and Gladstone Dowie. The white-robed choir sang an anthem and Dowie went into retirement to receive reports from his lieutenants.

THEY RATIFIED IN SILENCE

DEMOCRATS CROWD BENCHES IN EMMA SQUARE LAST NIGHT AND LISTEN TO ADDRESSES.

All of the benches in Emma Square were filled with people last night. The people were supposed to be Democrats for they were attending a Democratic "ratification," but so far as any demonstration of enthusiasm was concerned, it reminded one of a gathering of Quakers where everybody waits for the spirit to move them to utterance.

Parker and Davis were supposed to be the names with which to spellbind, but the Democracy seemed to be a hide-bound lot. They declined absolutely to endorse. It was a chilly affair. Old line Democrats, ex-Home Rulers, et al., huddled together on the benches to keep politically warm. The meeting was more properly a political gymnastic exhibition, than a ratification. The way in which the crowd of anti-trust Democratic shouters, turned back somersaults in their frantic endeavors to get into the Parker band wagon was bewildering. When one of the speakers declared that Parker was sure to be elected, there was a wild rush of stalwarts to get in out of the wet. More than half of the Democrats present evidently went in the expectation of seeing Sam Parker stated on the platform. They thought he had been nominated for president. When Sam was not present there was general disappointment.

P. O'Sullivan, the president of the precinct club presided. In the band stand with him were seated numerous life-long Democrats. Every speaker was as frisky as a debutante at her coming out party. They were just crazy to jump up and dance all over the poor Republican party.

Chairman O'Sullivan announced that the purpose of the meeting was to ratify the nomination of Parker and Davis. He declared that men would proclaim that these nominations formed a winning ticket. O'Sullivan closed in a peroration by declaring that the standards of the two leaders were on the mountain tops.

Colonel Charles J. McCarthy, who has probably carried the banner politically as long as any other Democrat in these islands, was next introduced. Harry B. Swinton explained how he had been a life-long Democrat.

W. A. Kinney spoke of the great and glorious principles of the Democratic party. John Emmeluth, the Walking Declaration of Independence, scored the Republican party for its shocking abuse of the people's rights in this territory. Roosevelt and Fairbanks would have trembled in their boots if they could have heard him roar. The blush of shame would have mantled their brows could they have learned with what frightful despot they are associated. Shanks Mossman declared himself in favor of Hearst and then in order, probably to escape the anger of the crowd, took them out to Midway Island for an issue. He denounced the recent action of the contractors at Midway in hiring white men and then turning them down when the striking Japs returned to work.

W. F. Ervine talked of finance and other matters. He is of the earnest style of orators. The people heard him in silence.

Sam Kalon, G. K. Luka and Stephen Umauna, who helped Spitzer go to the national convention, spouted Democracy in Hawaiian.

Fred Turrill was the last speaker. If there had been any others they would have talked to empty air. Turrill, like the other speakers, used Parker and Davis as a sort of peg to hang his speech on and then proceeded to berate the Home Rulers and local Republicans.

MOST VALUABLE IN THE WORLD

CLOAK OWNED BY PRINCES KUHIO AND DAVID, MADE OF O-O FEATHERS.

The Seattle Star has the following: HONOLULU, June 27.—Most probably the most valuable cloak in the world is the property of the Princes David and Kuhio of Hawaii. It is kept now in the Bishop museum and its value is placed at from $20,000 to $25,000. In fact it is priceless, for the cloak could never be replaced were it once destroyed. Seal skin cloaks trimmed with diamonds would not be as valuable at this priceless heirloom. It is made of the feathers of the o-o, a Hawaiian bird which is now extinct. In the good old days of the Hawaiian monarchy the o-o bird was taboo to all but the kings and chiefs. Two tall feathers were used from each bird in the making of this remarkable cloak, now the only one in existence. Hundreds of thousands of birds were slaughtered to secure the necessary material and they have been extinct for years. The cloak was the property of the Kamehamehas and has come down to Princes David and Kuhio, who are the heirs of the late Dowager Kaula-lani.

THE ADVANTAGES CEMENT ROOFING

POSSESSES OVER

Tin, Iron and Steel Roofing
 IT CANNOT RUST.

Gases, fumes, moisture, coal soot and smoke cannot injure or effect cement roofing.

It is better adapted for application over uneven surfaces, such as old shingles or metal roofs, obviating the expense of removing the same. It will not rattle from wind and storm, nor create any noise from rain falling upon it. The materials used in cement roofing are the best non-conductors of heat and cold known, therefore it will keep the building warmer in winter and cooler in summer than a metal roof.

Samples and full particulars mailed on request.

MIGHT MAKE A WAREHOUSE

A SUGGESTION FOR THE DISPOSITION OF THE FISHMARKET AT THE FOOT OF ALAKEA STREET.

Two suggestions for the disposition of the Alakea street fish market have been put before the Superintendent of Public Works. One of these is to turn the market over to the control of Japanese fishermen who are understood to be anxious to enter into competition with the Chinese fishmarkets on King and Maunakea streets, and the other is to make the building over into a warehouse. When the new wharf is completed on the lower end of Alakea street a warehouse such as could be made of the market would be invaluable. The place would be but a hundred and twenty feet from the wharf and would be an ideal place for the use of the large importing firms. If this change were made the market would be a producer of large revenue for the territorial government.

MISS KELLEY LEAVES.

Miss Kate Kelley, chief clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Territory, yesterday afternoon ended her long official career with the local government. Acting Governor Atkinson addressed a letter to Miss Kelley in which he warmly thanked her for her past efforts, paying a high tribute to her clerical capacity and wished her success in whatever venture she undertook in the future. Miss Kelley has been clerk in the office for the past ten years. She will leave on the steamship China for a vacation.

From the following advertisement found in a London paper it appears they are still at it over there. Office boy wanted. Polite, attentive, quick, one who does not whistle "Hawatha" preferred. Address, etc.

Chronic Diarrhoea—For several years during the summer months I have been subject to looseness of the bowels, which quickly ran into a very bad diarrhoea and this trouble was frequently accompanied with severe pain and cramps. I used to call on doctors for my trouble but it became so regular a summer affliction that in my search for relief, I became acquainted with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which proved so effective and so prompt that I came to rely exclusively upon it, and what also happily surprised me was that while it almost instantly relieved the cramps and stopped the diarrhoea, it never caused constipation. I always take a bottle of it with me when travelling—H. C. Hartman, Anamosa, Iowa, U. S. A. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.
